Office of the President

August 30, 2010

Dear Delta Colleagues:

On behalf of the nearly 18,000 Flight Attendants at American Airlines, we stand in strong support of your campaign for unity, security, and respect through representation with the Association of Flight Attendants (AFA). Every Flight Attendant stands to gain when a union negotiates a legally binding contract with good pay and benefits for you.

As fellow Flight Attendants, we know firsthand the challenges and hardships you face everyday on the job and in your lives – particularly during the past couple of volatile years. But without a voice protected in a legally binding contract, your wages, benefits, work rules, retirement plans, and jobs could be at risk.

Now is your chance to take control of your career. By voting for union representation you also become part of an even larger united voice for Flight Attendants in our workplaces, in the industry, and on Capitol Hill. Delta AFA will be a member of the Coalition of Flight Attendant Unions. This coalition is made up of unions representing over 90,000 Flight Attendants at 26 U.S. airlines. Delta Airlines will not lobby for your interests in Washington, but Flight Attendant unions working together will!

This is your chance to secure a voice in your future – especially now, in this uncertain economic time. Never has it been more important for us all to stick together, to gain the security of a legally binding contract with industry-leading pay and benefits, and to have a strong voice in Washington to achieve the recognition, support, and respect our profession is long overdue.

In Unity,

Laura Glading
APFA President
