Whereas, the recipients are to embody the same principles of service and dedication to fairness, equality, and respect for human dignity in the workplace, which Martha W. Griffiths exemplified; and

Whereas, Elaine Barber served APFA for many years in many capacities, including LGA Chairperson, Division Representative, Vice-President, Negotiator, and an Ad Hoc Member of the executive committee; and

Whereas, her achievements and steadfast commitment to the rights of the flight attendant and to protecting our contract through the System Board Department was unwavering; and

Whereas, the personification of the ideals of the Martha W. Griffith award are reflected in the contributions Elaine Barber has made to the APFA,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the APFA Board of Directors bestows the Martha W. Griffiths Award to Elaine Barber for her years of dedication and service to the APFA.
