Resolution #2

WHEREAS, American Airlines Pilots are not subjected to these same FAA minimums; and

WHEREAS, these hardships can and do interfere with a Flight Attendants ability to effectively perform their FAA mandated security duties; and

WHEREAS, there has been a unified effort on Capitol Hill to voice concern and force legislation to mandate an increase in FAA minimum layover rest time.

BE IT RESOLVED, that Representatives from the APFA shall meet with American Airlines to attempt to obtain a remedy; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that if American Airlines chooses not to respect Flight Attendants as safety professionals on board the aircraft, and if American Airlines chooses not to respect Flight Attendants health and well being; and

THEREFOR BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the APFA begin a campaign to join the movement to petition Congress to increase the federally mandated layover rest including but not limited to fly-ins to Washington to Capitol Hill, an active writing campaign including through use of Capwiz, dedication on the APFA Web site to this issue and whatever tools deemed necessary to be successful in this endeavor.
